

FACT SHEET

Gunnery Department
SFC Gibson: DSN 639-5625
4 October 2001

SUBJECT: Gun Laying and Positioning System (GLPS) New Equipment Training (NET) Overview

1. The Gunnery Department is the proponent for GLPS NET of both Active and Army National Guard battalions. Numerous Active and Army National Guard towed and self-propelled howitzer battalions have or will field the GLPS.
2. Training plan. GLPS NET is train the trainer, and covers the following topics: GLPS set-up, GLPS operation, battery charger operation, winterization kit use, march order procedures, and GLPS PMCS/troubleshooting/maintenance. The operator training is over a two-day period. Army National Guard units complete the operator training during an IDT drill weekend period.